CITY WIDE BOOK READ

For the eighth year, Dr. Jim Somerville and Mr. David M. Bailey, are challenging the citizens of Richmond to a City-Wide Book Read
during Black History Month.

Mr. Bailey is the Founder and CEO of Arrabon, a Richmond nonprofit dedicated to the essential work of reconciliation.

Dr. Somerville serves as the Senior Pastor of Richmond's First Baptist Church.

This year's title, White Too Long, examines the legacy of white supremacy among Southern Baptists and other Christian denominations.

We invite you to read the book and then join us on Monday, March 10 at 7 p.m., for a panel discussion including time for questions and answers.

LIVING HISTORY & STORYTELLING

Join us for In the Presence of Maggie Walker with Theresa G,
February 8, 2025 at 2:00 PM.

Maggie Walker

(1864 – 1934)

from Richmond, Virginia was a businesswoman who served as the nation's first black female bank president.

Theresa G made her name in the broadcast community as a radio and television personality, hosting the former radio broadcast Talk-Back Live and Community of Hope television program for a number of years.

Ms. G has moved on to become a storyteller and living history performer.

In addition to her Biblical characters, Theresa G embodies such personalities as Sally Hemings, Rosa Parks, Maya Angelou, and most notably, Coretta Scott King

Connecting with our River City Faith Network Leadership

Introducing our Board, Committee and Support Team Members

Mrs. Phyllis Baskerville

Mrs. Baskerville retired after serving the VA Department of Corrections for 32 years as the warden at Fluvanna Correctional Facility. She enjoys reading and spending time with her husband, Alton, 2 daughters, their spouses, and 4 grandchildren. Phyllis is actively involved with the RCFN as a Board Member, Personnel Committee co-chair and volunteers with center activities as she is able. Phyllis serves in these ways as the Holy Spirit leads her. She enjoys the fellowship, up-to-to date information and the opportunity to serve that the River City Faith Network offers. Thank you, Phyllis!!

Mr. Richard Martin

Mr. Martin retired after serving 35 years with the Virginia Department of Social Services, most recently as the Director of the Office of Legislative and Regulatory Affairs. Richard and his wife Bev, enjoy traveling and spending time with their blended family of 4 children, 7 grandchildren and 5 great-grandchildren. Richard enjoys volunteer activities and serving on several foundation boards. He is actively involved with the RCFN as Treasurer, a role he has filled for us in the past. Richard serves on our Board because he wants to make a difference, bringing expertise in a variety of areas. He enjoys seeing the results of the work in our ministry centers. Thank you, Richard!!
