Greetings All:

Wednesday, June 1, was the first day of Mrs. Margaret Allen’s retirement as one of our three Community Missionaries in the Richmond Baptist Association! We wish Margaret well! We cannot thank her enough for her service. As you prayed for her in her ministry, pray for her in her retirement.

On June 4th, Camp Director Beth Wright moved to Camp Alkulana for the summer. She immediately spearheaded the second camp clean-up weekend for this season. On June 8th approximately 30 camp counselors engaged in staff training that extends through midday on Monday, June 20th. They will learn that Camp Alkulana is “not simply a summer camp nor a program to keep kids busy and out of trouble”….but a camp that strives to “reveal God’s love to our campers so that they can begin to see their own value as God’s creation and see the value in other people and places around them.”

Among the core values stated in the Camp Training Manual and around which the camp builds its ministry are:

- Knowing God through Jesus Christ
- Growing spiritually through Bible study and worship
- Serving God by serving others
- Recognizing the individuality and potential of each person

Pray for our director and staff as they minister in the Name of Christ throughout the four camper sessions.

On Thursday, June 16th, our Summer Sojourner Missionaries rolled up their sleeves to help with food distribution at the South Richmond Baptist Center. In this outreach they saw first-hand the value of churches partnering to meet the needs of people in a way nearly impossible for single churches alone. They also met the Rev. Wesley Garrett. It was Wesley’s first day as the new R.B.A. Community Missionary at the South Richmond Center! Together, we filled grocery bags, hosted those receiving them, shared a devotional from the Book of Romans, prayed together and sent folks away with much-needed resources available through the generosity of faithful churches of the association. Pray for Molly Gardner, Lindsey Turner and Valerie Westerman, working for the association throughout the summer. Pray for Wesley as he begins his ministry among us.

Although school has just “let out” for the summer, our WMU groups and churches have already started gathering school supplies to fill backpacks for the children of fiscally challenged families to help them have a fair start when schools reopen in September. This effort is orchestrated by Kathleen Coxon, the Missions Involvement Coordinator of the RBA WMU, and distributed by our three Community Missionaries, Glinda Ford at the Church Hill Christian Wellness Center, Jennifer Turner at the Oregon Hill Baptist Center, and Wesley Garrett at the South Richmond Baptist Center. If you and your church have not been involved with this ministry before, you can check out the information on the front cover of this issue to find out when the Back-To-School Events are planned for our Centers and how you and your church can make contributions. This ministry is made possible because you in our individual churches allow the love of God to flow freely through you into the lives of the recipient children and their families. Continue to pray for your Community Missionaries, our WMU leaders and each other as God continues to use us to change lives and to make a difference in Richmond, Virginia!

As someone recently wrote to me regarding our RBA ministries, “Smile Church! You have not lost your saltiness; you are not covering up your lamp.”

Let’s continue to be “salt” and “light.” Both are desperately needed!

Mike

PARTNERSHIP MISSIONS UPDATE

The “Liberian” Partnership between the Richmond Baptist Association (RBA) and the African Christian Community Church (ACCC) has been one year in the works with its first anniversary in February!

The After-School program continues on Mondays through Thursdays from 3 to 6 p.m. under the leadership of one of the Liberian ladies, Hawa Gobah. Hawa receives a small salary from the RBA and this seems to be working out well.

Many RBA churches and volunteers have been participating in training, mentoring, or providing snacks, games and groceries. Check out the photos below from a few of the partnership events from earlier this year.

January 2011: two representatives from the Virginia Baptist Mission Board held a training session on how to teach Sunday school. Pictured are the seven ACCC ladies who participated in the training along with the two trainers (in red).

February 2011: The ACCC had a table at Second Baptist’s “Rodeo Roundup for Missions”. Pictured are two ladies from ACCC, in native dress, who were on hand telling visitors about the ACCC-RBA Partnership Mission opportunities.

March 2011: Mattie Flowers and a group of ladies from Second Baptist began a Bible Study with ladies from ACCC.

2011 RBA Missions Involvement Extravaganza!

Make this your TIME TO SHINE through missions...

All RBA churches are invited to send representatives from their missions organizations to the 2nd Annual Extravaganza on:

Saturday, July 23, 2011
from 9:30 a.m. until 11:30 a.m.
at the RBA Building, 3111 Moss Side Avenue

This will be a great opportunity to learn about missions involvement in the RBA. The RBA Missions Involvement Program provides support to our three inner-city Baptist Centers (Oregon Hill, Church Hill and South Richmond), Camp Alkulana, the campus ministries at VCU and UR, and the Barnabas Project of the African Christian Community Church. You will be able to meet staff, learn about programs, and discover ways you and your church can be involved with inner-city social ministries.

The Missions Involvement Extravaganza is sponsored by the RBA and the RBA WMU. We hope your church will be represented! Those who attended our first Extravaganza last year found it to be a very informative event.

The Missions Involvement Assignments for 2011-2012 will be distributed to churches during this event.

Coffee and refreshments will be served.

Questions?: Contact Kathleen Coxon, Missions Involvement Coordinator at 272-1667 or mkcbgly1@verizon.net.

KEEP YOUR FINANCES SAFE WHILE YOU TRAVEL

With the kids out of school, summer vacations are underway. Keep in mind these few tips to keep your finances safe as you make your way out of town:

- Notify your financial institution that you’ll be traveling. This will ensure that legitimate purchases are approved and not declined due to fraud suspicion. You can also determine if your debit card is subject to any daily spending or cash withdrawal restrictions.
- Keep your debit and credit card account numbers, as well as the lost/stolen customer service contact telephone numbers, in a safe place (separate from your wallet or handbag).
- If you’re traveling internationally, purchase foreign currency or prepaid foreign currency reloadable cards ahead of time to avoid foreign transaction fees.

For more travel tips or to make foreign currency purchases, contact Greta Kidd at Entrust Federal Credit Union at 353-8012 or gkidd@entrustfcu.com. Please browse our website, www.efcu.coop. Entrust was started by Christians, for Christians to take care of your financial needs. Let us serve you!
