MATERIALS STILL AVAILABLE FOR RBA’s
2010 Camp Alkulana Offering and
Week of Prayer for Associational Missions (May 16-23, 2010)

Many RBA churches have already placed their orders for 2010 Camp Offering promotional materials and the prayer guide for the Week of Prayer, but many have not. The RBA office still has an ample supply of all the materials available. Shown below are samples of the Offering Envelope, and Flier (8½ x 11) for the Camp Offering; and the Prayer Guide for the Week of Prayer. Other promo items available for the Camp Offering are, bulletin inserts (5½ x 8½) or posters (11x17), and the Camp Alkulana brochure. To view samples of these items and the order form, visit the Camp Offering section of the RBA website at www.rbaonline.org or to place an order contact Frances Jones at frances.jones@rbaonline.org or 804-329-1701 ext. 201. Hurry and get your order in while supplies last!

The Prayer Guide highlights a different associational mission for each day of the week with a photo of the RBA staff member and specific prayer requests relating to that ministry. The use of the prayer guides for a week is an excellent way for a congregation, Sunday School class or missions group to get to know the staff and ministries of the RBA. The Guide is formatted so that it can be used for any seven-day period during the year, not just during the official Week of Prayer for Associational Missions which is May 16-23, 2010.
Greetings,

The Week of Prayer for Associational Missions is scheduled for May 16-23. As it is observed by the member churches of the Richmond Baptist Association, it becomes one of the most important times of the year for the support of local missions. We provide an RBA prayer guide to our churches and ask you to pray for the ministry listed for each day of the week. Thousands of the members of RBA churches will join together in intercessory prayer for the association missionaries, the support staff, the teams and councils of the RBA, and for the many people who are touched by the ministries of the RBA. The spiritual power generated during this simultaneous prayer focus is awesome!

In addition to the widespread prayer observance by our churches during this special week, the RBA also receives a special offering for associational missions, which provides the financial support to operate our Camp Alkulana ministry. The offering goal for Alkulana for 2010 is $109,000.00, which is what the budget needs to make Camp happen this year. Some 200 inner-city children will attend Camp Alkulana this summer. This is vital ministry! Hundreds of inner-city youth have been changed and reclaimed over the many years the Camp has been in existence. There is no telling how many bright, young leaders for our churches have been trained and called into service because of their involvement in leadership at Camp Alkulana. If you want to see the lives of at-risk children touched by the love of Jesus, then pray for Camp Alkulana and give generously so we can bring these beautiful children to the mountains of Bath County.

The Virginia Baptist Mission Board has published the annual report listing the top 100 Baptist General Association of Virginia churches in total Cooperative Missions giving for 2009. Once again, I was delighted to see that ten RBA churches were on that list of contributing churches. Actually, it was the same ten churches as last year. The first number is the ranking for 2009 and the number in parenthesis is the ranking for 2008.

2 (2) Bon Air Baptist Church
3 (5) First Baptist Church
9 (11) Second Baptist Church
11 (13) Derbyshire Baptist Church
12 (16) River Road Church, Baptist
16 (21) Huguenot Road Baptist Church
26 (25) New Bridge Baptist Church
59 (71) Monument Heights Baptist Church
60 (67) Broadus Memorial Baptist Church
83 (86) Hatcher Memorial Baptist Church

The 69 churches from the Richmond Baptist Association are a part of the 1,400 plus churches that make up the BGAV. All of these churches are commanded and expected to have a vision of reaching the world with the good news of Jesus Christ (Acts 1:8). The RBA is grateful to our member churches that give to cooperative missions even though they may not have been listed in the top 100 churches. Every offering from every church is vitally important to world evangelization. Yes, it is still a profound truth – “we can do so much more together than any one of us can do alone!”

For a number of years, the Richmond Baptist Association has enlisted young people between the ages of 16 and 21 to serve as Sojourner Summer Missionaries at our Baptist Centers. They assist the Center Directors in their various activities of a full summer program. These students are asked to serve about 20 hours a week for ten weeks through the summer months. They do receive a stipend for their work. Each year, we hear wonderful stories of how these students were a blessing to the people ministered to in our Baptist Centers. And we hear the testimonies of the Sojourners themselves who tell us they are the ones who were really blessed by their summer service. This year, three students have been selected to serve as our Sojourners. They are:

- Laura Bradshaw, Bon Air
- Emily Satterwhite, First
- Wil Johns, Huguenot Road

The RBA is blessed to be able to provide this ministry each summer as it touches the lives of the Sojourners, the Center Directors, and the many people served through the Center ministries. Thank you to the churches of the Association that faithfully support the work of the RBA and allow us to employ these summer missionaries each year. Together we can do so much more than any one of us can do alone.

Lillian is the daughter of Cari and David DuVal. She received a scholarship to attend GA camp at Crossroads during the summer of 2010. Congratulations, Lillian.

The leadership of the RBA WMU is pleased to announce that Lillian DuVal of First Baptist has been chosen as the 2010 Outstanding GA. Lillian has participated in missions at church since she could walk and talk and has been involved with GAs for five years! She has almost perfect attendance in GAs. She is an enthusiastic participant and leads her friends by example and a great attitude.

Lillian’s participation in mission trips to Helena, Arkansas for the past two summers aimed at helping poor children made her aware that there are hungry people everywhere. To honor her friends in Arkansas, once a month she packs 40 sack lunches for Richmond Friends of the Homeless. She asks her family, friends from school and other GAs to help. For her birthday she asked for money instead of gifts to buy food for the lunches. She invites friends to her house to decorate the lunch bags and pack hearty lunches. Then she leads them in prayer. She adds a chocolate kiss to each lunch representing the prayers.

Lillian is the daughter of Cari and David DuVal. She received a scholarship to attend GA camp at Crossroads during the summer of 2010. Congratulations, Lillian.

The RBA’s Woman’s Missionary Union
2010 Outstanding GA

The Camp Alkulana ministry of the Richmond Baptist Association has recently received an unexpected blessing in the form of a monetary gift to our endowment. Mrs. Marian Bailey, a long-time member of First Baptist Church, passed away in 2009, leaving half of her estate to Camp Alkulana’s endowment fund. The endowment fund was established in 1984 to ensure the livelihood of the camp’s property and facilities. Thus, the endowment is designated for capital improvements, and is managed by the Camp Alkulana Support Team.

Though Mrs. Bailey had no direct descendants, we have spoken with a friend and a family member close to her. She spent her entire life in Richmond, and has long been active at First Baptist Church. She was an employee of the cancer center at MCV where she served as an administrative assistant for one of their doctors. She is described as a strong, intelligent, fun-loving and kind woman.

Her giving nature, apparent in this monetary gift, goes without saying. We are blessed by her giving nature in ways she may not have even imagined. Alkulana runs on a tight budget that is fully funded by individuals and churches, most of which are in the Richmond area. In addition, we are often blessed with small gifts to cover our needs for extra expenses—like the bicycle drive and book fund that have been well supported. It is not often, though, that we receive such large gifts that allow us to plan for the future in a way we were not previously able to do. Mrs. Bailey’s gift will be felt for a long time; it has tripled our endowment fund.

One of the most interesting things about this gift is that it truly came out of nowhere. Thus far, we have not been able to determine a solid connection between Mrs. Bailey and Camp Alkulana. We did not know Mrs. Bailey as a long-time supporter of Camp Alkulana or know of her participation in the larger Richmond Baptist life. We know her as a member of First Baptist, a church that has repeated our name from the pulpit on various occasions and posted our flyers in their hallways. Perhaps Mrs. Bailey took interest in the camp because of the years that she spent in the mountains as teenager. Perhaps her immense love for children and interest in their welfare peaked her interest in Alkulana. We may never know.

The nature of an endowment is that it is a gift for all time. The rules that govern our use of this money ensure that Marian Bailey’s gift will be invested and released in increments that will allow us to make some small improvements, while saving the principle amount as a promise of Alkulana’s future. Mrs. Bailey has left her legacy to grow in the children that step foot at Alkulana this summer and every summer afterwards. Her gift will find its place in the nails we use for new building projects, the vehicles we drive, and the land we hope to purchase to expand our borders. We are grateful for the opportunity to plan for our future growth as we continue to plant seeds of hope and love in Richmond’s young people.

Have you considered your legacy? Please think about investing in the future of Alkulana’s ministry. Your gift to Alkulana’s Endowment Fund can guarantee our ability to continue Alkulana’s ministry far into the future.

Thanks to Barbara Faulconer, Christie Hartsock, and Arlene Goodall for providing information for this article, and for their care of their dear friend, Marian Bailey.
DEACONS SET THE EXAMPLE AT THE 2010 CVBM DEACON/PASTOR CONFERENCE

At the Central Virginia Baptist Ministries Deacon/Pastor Conference held on March 22 at Mount Vernon Baptist Church, 395 of you signed in. It was an exciting night with groups waiting in the hallway to get into the next session. A repeated phrase heard throughout the conference was “all the conferences sound so good and pertinent – it’s hard to pick only two!” Dr. Don Runion inspired us all during the opening session based on Colossians 3:23: “Whatever you do, work at it with all your heart, as working for the Lord, not for men…”

Max Lucado said that he remembers as a child having a high jump bar in the backyard. He spent many hours throwing himself over that bar (actually a cane fishing pole) and landing on an old mattress. “I was proud of my achievements until the day my big brother and his friends came by. They raised the bar. When they left, the bar was at a new level and I had a new concept of what it means to jump high” (They Smell Like Sheep by Lynn Anderson)

Lucado used this story on biblical leadership to illustrate how deacons are called to raise the bar in the church. He pointed out that deacons set the example and lift the standard of what it means to be a Christian. According to Lucado, being with them should cause us to think higher thoughts and set higher dreams. THE LIFE OF A DEACON SHOULD INSPIRE US TO RAISE THE BAR IN OUR HOME LIFE, PRAYER LIFE, CHARACTER, AND DEDICATION.

LISTED BELOW ARE A SAMPLES OF COMMENTS WE RECEIVED:

- Attending the conference helped “raise the bar” in my life:
- “This session was a great beginning. I need to learn more about how I can serve Jesus.”
- (The facilitator) “presented a clear message with life examples. It touched on an issue I just spent the day dealing with.”
- (The facilitator) “is so full of information and experiences – I need more time for him to teach me.”
- “Just scratched the surface for this former Methodist struggling to understand Baptist structure.”
- “Reaffirmed our decision to be a Missional Church.”
- “This focus of how to ensure spiritual health of leaders (deacons/pastors) is strong so it will ‘rub off’ on the church as a whole.
- “A wonderful opportunity for people like me who are new deacons looking for better ways to serve.”

It was good to be in God’s house with so many other men and women willing to work with all their heart to serve God. As deacons, we are expected to set the example. Albert Schweitzer reminds us: Example is not the main thing in persuading others; it’s the only thing.

PARTNERSHIP MISSIONS UPDATE

TORONTO AND LIBERIA

NEWS ABOUT OUR TORONTO PARTNERSHIP WITH DIXON MINISTRIES “SEWING SUPPLIES NEEDED”

Dixon Ministries still want us to come and help them whenever we can. The latest request is for sewing supplies:

- ZIPPERS, NEEDLES (ALL SIZES), SCISSORS, FABRIC (NO POLYESTER, PLEASE), BUTTONS, AND OTHER SEWING NOTIONS.

The Dodsons will be traveling again to the Matthew House in late July and are willing to take all of the above. Donations are being collected at the RBA office, 8:30-4:30 Monday - Friday. Deadline for donations of items to go to Toronto is July 15.

OUR NEW PARTNERSHIP WITH THE LIBERIAN CHURCH (ACCC) IN RICHMOND

We need volunteers to help with the after-school program at the African Christian Community Church (ACCC) on Mondays through Thursdays from 3-6 p.m. If you only have one or two hours during the week to volunteer, that’s fine. Any amount of time is appreciated. Tutoring is a big need and we have done very little of this. They have about 25 children participating in the after-school program which is an increase in the past months. Pastor Calvin Birch is, of course, very pleased.

There is a need for “ready-to-go” snacks for the after-school program. Several churches have taken snacks, but more are needed. Donations of school supplies are also welcomed.

As part of their ministry to the community, ACCC has a food pantry and clothes closet and donations of canned goods and seasonal clothing are appreciated.

Huguenot Road Staff and church members gave 2 1/2 days to work at the church painting, repairing, setting up library, getting computers in operation, and installing a water cooler. A team of youth from all over Virginia (20 along with 6 adults) worked one full day at the church doing whatever was needed. These teams have been wonderful and greatly appreciated.

Calvin tells me often how thankful he is for this partnership. Everyone is invited to visit his church sometime on Sunday - He would love to have you.

If you have questions about either Partnership, please contact Ruth Guill, Partnership Missions Coordinator, at 804-745-1655.
